

Management Intensive Grazing

The regional Grazing Schools are educational programs taught by the Natural Resources Conservation Service (NRCS) and University of Missouri Extension (UE). The programs are intended to educate producers and agency personnel in the art and science of grazing management, transfer new technology in grassland management to producers and agency personnel and to qualify producers for the State DSP-3 cost-share program. There are 9 grazing school regions across the state. For further information please contact the regional coordinators. < <http://agebb.missouri.edu/mfgc> >.

"The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all of its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, political beliefs, genetic information, reprisal, or because all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TD)." To file a complaint of discrimination, write to USDA, Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Stop 9410, Washington, DC 20250-9410, or call toll-free at (866) 632-9992 (English) or (800) 877-8339 (TDD) or (866) 377-8642 (English Federal-relay) or (800) 845-6136 (Spanish Federal-relay).
